

A Program That Allows Minority businesses to be matched electronically with statewide business opportunities has been launched by the Wisconsin Business Resource Center. The center's new web based opportunity matching database (www.wmboc.org) will make it possible for minority enterprises to register for statewide business opportunities, based on their industries and search criteria, at a single source.